

I don't want the big companies to have a total stranglehold on the communications system. I chose my ISP *because* it is small, and local, and offers excellent personal service *on top* of competitive prices. Please do not let the big business kill off the small ones.